Section 2.2 License Restrictions

Except as expressly authorized herein, COMPANY shall not:

- (3) COMPANY agrees to co-operate with XE.COM and protect the intellectual property rights of XE.COM in the Software, the Universal Currency Converter, and the Currency Data, and shall comply with all reasonable requests made by XE.COM to protect such rights in all of foregoing, both during and after the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3: TERMS OF SERVICE

Section 3.1 COMPANY's Responsibilities

With the sole exception of the provision of the Software by XE.COM, COMPANY shall be responsible for acquiring, installing, operating and maintaining, at its own risk and expense, any hardware or software required by COMPANY to access, or to provide its End-Users access, to the Universal Currency Converter, including without limitation the design, coding and maintenance of the Input and Output Page(s) of the Universal Currency Converter.

Section 3.2 Content of Input and Output Page(s)

XE.COM shall provide COMPANY with the Software and instructions for incorporating the Software in the Input and Output Page(s), but shall have no responsibility to provide any further instructions or assistance in connection with the foregoing. COMPANY shall be responsible for maintaining the Input Page(s) in a manner and location that is accessible and acceptable to End-Users. Following the design and coding of the Output Page(s), including incorporation of the necessary components of the Software as provided for in the instructions supplied by XE.COM, COMPANY shall provide a copy of such completed Output Page(s) for loading on XE.COM's servers. COMPANY acknowledges that it shall be wholly responsible for ensuring that the Input Page(s) incorporating the Software properly invoke and work seamlessly with the Output Page(s) so that the Universal Currency Converter functions correctly in response to a request by an End-User for a rate conversion from one currency to another currency.

Section 3.3 Required Content of Output Page(s)

The Output Page(s) shall contain the following required notices and links, the design and wording for which shall be subject to the joint approval of XE.COM and COMPANY:

- (a) a link to the main XE.COM site;
- (b) a link to explanatory information if unusual currency rate data is detected;
- (c) a link to the End-User Terms of Use, pursuant to Section 2.1 of this Agreement;
- (d) a link to one other XE.COM service; and
- (e) a notice (hyperlink not required) that the service is under license from XE.COM.

COMPANY acknowledges that, from time to time, XE.COM may propose changes to the design, wording, or number of such links. All such changes are subject to the joint approval of XE.COM and COMPANY. Notice and details of such proposed changes will be sent from XE.COM by e-mail to all COMPANY's contacts listed in the "Designated Contacts" section of this agreement. Proposed changes shall be deemed acceptable to COMPANY either (a) upon receipt by XE.COM of an e-mail or other written correspondence from COMPANY accepting the proposed changes, or (b) if no contrary response is received by e-mail or other written correspondence by XE.COM from COMPANY within thirty (30) days of the date XE.COM sent the original notice.

Section 3.4 Acknowledgement of Intellectual Property Rights

Where the Software or other intellectual property of XE.COM are incorporated in the Input or Output Page(s), including without limitation the Universal Currency Converter (whether or not incorporating XE.COM's standard user interface) or the trademarks or other copyrighted material owned or developed by XE.COM, COMPANY shall clearly and conspicuously identify and credit XE.COM's status as developer, owner and/or the licensor, as the case may be, of such Software and intellectual property in language acceptable to XE.COM, acting reasonably, and pursuant to any agreements XE.COM may have in place with such suppliers. In the provision of services hereunder XE.COM may incorporate, under license, software, financial data or intellectual property of third party suppliers. In such event, the COMPANY shall identify such third party supplier's ownership in such manner as may be directed by XE.COM from time to time.

Section 3.5 Modifications/Interruption of Service

COMPANY acknowledges that XE.COM may from time to time, and in its sole discretion, change the content or format of the Software, the Universal Currency Converter or the Currency Data in accordance with general changes made to its standard service offering. The terms and conditions applicable to use of such modified Software, Universal Currency Converter or Currency Data may be changed from time to time upon reasonable notice to COMPANY. The continued use by COMPANY of the Software, the Universal Currency Converter or the Currency Data following receipt of such notice shall be deemed acceptance by COMPANY of such additions or changes.

COMPANY further acknowledges that, following reasonable notice to COMPANY by XE.COM, use of or access to the Software, the Universal Currency Converter or the Currency Data (or any part thereof) may be interrupted in order to maintain, modify or enhance any of the foregoing. Although XE.COM shall use reasonable efforts to assure that use of or access to the Software, the Universal Currency Converter or the Currency Data is uninterrupted, XE.COM assumes no responsibility for interruptions or delays in delivery of same. If any such interruption continues for a period in excess of three consecutive days, or if use of or access to the Software, the Universal Currency Converter or the Currency Data is repeatedly so interrupted over a 30-day period, COMPANY may terminate this Agreement without termination liability on written notice to XE.COM, provided that if such interruptions are solely as a result of activities undertaken by XE.COM, COMPANY, upon termination, shall be entitled to a refund of the license fee paid for the year in which such interruptions occurred equal to the annual fee paid in the year in which such interruptions occurred multiplied by the number of unused days of the Service in such year divided by 365.

Section 3.6 Currency Data Specific Requirements

COMPANY acknowledges that access to financial data contained or used in the Currency Data may be subject to separate license agreements between XE.COM and third party financial data feed providers, and that, accordingly, XE.COM's continued ability to provide COMPANY with access to such Currency Data may be expressly subject to the continuance of such agreements in force and that access to such Currency Data may automatically terminate upon termination of the applicable license agreement. COMPANY acknowledges that its right to access such Currency Data may be subject to its execution of and compliance with the applicable financial data feed provider's standard end-user contract(s).

Section 3.7 Information Compiled by XE.COM

COMPANY acknowledges that XE.COM collects log files and other data during the course of accesses to XE.COM computers.

For example, in the course of accepting and fulfilling requests by End-Users for rate conversions from COMPANY's Input Page(s), certain information is made available to XE.COM by the very nature of the transaction. This information includes, without limitation, any input values provided via the Input Page(s), as well as the normal type of data that is regularly exchanged in the course of fulfilling a standard HTTP request, such as date, time, IP address, HTTP referrer, "cookies", etc. XE.COM collects such information. This is typical of the type of data that is normally collected and logged by webserver on the Internet.

XE.COM shall be the exclusive owner of all rights in any such data it collects. In connection therewith, COMPANY covenants that it shall notify and solicit the consent of all End-Users visiting the COMPANY Site(s) by prominent inclusion of a hyperlink to XE.COM's privacy policies through COMPANY's privacy policies, terms or use, or otherwise on the COMPANY Site(s), to enable XE.COM's collection and use of such information pertaining to End-Users.

ARTICLE 4: TERM and TERMINATION

Section 4.1 Term

Unless earlier terminated as set forth herein, the initial term (the “Initial Term”) of this Agreement shall be for one (1) year commencing from receipt of the Initial License Fee by XE.COM in accordance with section 5.1 hereunder. Unless either Party notifies the other Party in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term or any Renewal Term of its intent to terminate at the conclusion of such Initial or Renewal Term, this Agreement shall be automatically extended for successive periods of one (1) year (each a “Renewal Term”) on the anniversary of the commencement of the Initial Term.

Section 4.2 Termination

- (a) Either Party may terminate this Agreement at any time in the event of a material breach by the other Party which remains uncured for ten (10) days after receipt of written notice detailing such material breach. The Parties agree that any financial invoices and statements issued by XE.COM in the regular course of business constitute sufficient written notice for breaches involving non-payment by Company under Section 5 of this Agreement.
- (b) In the case of a material breach of this agreement by COMPANY, including any failure to pay amounts due to XE.COM pursuant Section 5 of this Agreement in a timely manner, COMPANY agrees that all outstanding invoices and charges, including any unpaid License Fee instalments, shall become immediately due and payable by COMPANY, and that XE.COM shall have no further obligation to provide any services to COMPANY.
- (c) Either Party may terminate this Agreement immediately following written notice to the other Party if the other Party (a) ceases to carry on business in the ordinary course; (b) becomes or is declared insolvent or bankrupt; (c) is the subject of any proceeding related to its liquidation or insolvency (whether voluntary or involuntary) which is not dismissed within ninety (90) days; or (d) makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors.

Section 4.3 Termination for Convenience

In addition to COMPANY’s right to terminate pursuant to Section 3.5 of this Agreement, COMPANY may terminate this Agreement at its convenience upon thirty (30) days written notice thereof to XE.COM. COMPANY acknowledges in such case, all outstanding invoices and charges, including any unpaid License Fee instalments, shall become immediately due and payable by COMPANY, and that that COMPANY shall not be entitled to a refund of any license fees paid to XE.COM hereunder in the event of any termination pursuant to this Section 4.3.

Section 4.4 Consequences Upon Termination

Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever, the License granted to COMPANY herein shall immediately terminate in its entirety and COMPANY shall promptly: (i) remove the Input Page(s) from the COMPANY Site(s); (ii) cease linking and directing End-Users to the Output Page(s); and (iii) return to XE.COM the original and all copies of the Software. COMPANY shall certify in writing its compliance with the foregoing. Each Party shall also promptly return all Confidential Information of the other Party provided to it, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5: FEES AND PAYMENT TERMS

- (1) COMPANY shall pay XE.COM a non-refundable (except as expressly provided herein) license fee of US $540.00, for the Initial Term (the “Initial License Fee”). The Initial License Fee shall be due and payable in full upon execution of this Agreement. The Initial License Fee is exclusive of all applicable Canadian sales taxes. You are required to pay, in addition to the License Fee, all applicable goods and services tax (“GST”) and harmonized sales tax (“HST”) imposed under Part IX of the Excise Tax Act (Canada),
- (2) The non-refundable (except as expressly provided herein) license fee due to XE.COM by COMPANY for each Renewal Term, if any, shall be US $540.00, plus applicable taxes (the “Renewal License Fee”). The Renewal License Fee shall be due and payable in advance of the commencement of the Renewal Term upon the issuance of an invoice therefor by XE.COM no earlier than 60 days prior to the commencement of such Renewal Term.

XE.COM reserves the right to amend the Renewal License Fee for any Renewal Term provided that COMPANY shall be provided with written notice of any such changes at least 60 days prior to the commencement of the applicable Renewal Term.

- (3) COMPANY acknowledges that the Initial License Fee and any Renewal License Fee are completely non-refundable, except as expressly provided herein, and shall be deemed to be fully earned by XE.COM on the date the Initial License Fee or any Renewal License Fee is paid by COMPANY.
- (4) The Parties acknowledge that the launch of the Universal Currency Converter through the COMPANY Site(s) will not commence until such time as the entire annual non-refundable (except as expressly provided herein) Initial License Fee is paid in full.

Section 5.2 Taxes

COMPANY shall be responsible for the payment of any taxes, including sales, use, property, excise, value added and gross receipts levied pursuant to this Agreement (but excluding taxes levied on XE.COM’s income).

Section 5.3 Payment Terms

All invoices issued by XE.COM to COMPANY pursuant to this Agreement shall be due and payable by COMPANY within thirty (30) days of the date of invoice, unless otherwise expressly noted. Overdue amounts shall bear interest at a rate of two (2%) percent per month (twenty-four (24%) percent per annum) or the highest rate allowed by law, whichever is lower. COMPANY shall be responsible for all costs incurred by XE.COM in collecting any overdue amount owed by COMPANY, including without limitation interest charges, collection charges, and legal fees.

Section 5.4 Payment Methods

Acceptable methods of payment by COMPANY to XE.COM are credit card or check.

If paying by credit card, COMPANY agrees to remit all payments for license fees under this agreement by credit card, and shall provide XE.COM with the information necessary to charge such fees to such card.

If paying by check, COMPANY agrees to remit all payments for license fees under this agreement by check, pursuant Section 5.3 ("Payment Terms") of this Agreement. COMPANY acknowledges that XE.COM does not accept postdated checks.

Section 5.5 Dishonored Payments

In the event that any payment presented by COMPANY to XE.COM is returned or dishonored, COMPANY will be deemed to be in material breach of this agreement, and COMPANY agrees to pay XE.COM an administration charge of US $50 for each such dishonored or returned payment.

ARTICLE 6: CONFIDENTIALITY

Section 6.1 Confidentiality

- (1) Each Party (the "Receiving Party") acknowledges that it may have access to and be entrusted with confidential and proprietary information of the other Party (the "Disclosing Party"), including without limitation the terms of this Agreement, trade secrets and information regarding the present and contemplated services, processes, techniques, procedures, products, lines of merchandise, suppliers and customers, or other technical, business or financial information of the Disclosing Party (the "Confidential Information"), the improper disclosure of any of which would be highly detrimental to such Disclosing Party. Accordingly, each Receiving Party acknowledges and agrees that, both during the term of this Agreement and following the termination of this Agreement for any reason:
 - (a) all Confidential Information shall remain the exclusive property of the Disclosing Party and shall be safeguarded by the Receiving Party with no less than reasonable care;
 - (b) the Receiving Party shall not use the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party for any purpose whatsoever except as may be required to give effect to the purposes of this Agreement; and
 - (c) the Receiving Party shall not divulge the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party to any Person other than to the Receiving Party's authorized employees, consultants and agents with a need to know such Confidential Information, provided that any such disclosure shall be only to the extent required to give effect to the purposes of this Agreement and that all such employees, consultants or agents have agreed to obligations of confidentiality with respect to the Confidential Information substantially in accordance with those provided herein prior to such disclosure.
- (2) Notwithstanding any provision contained in this Agreement, the Receiving Party shall not be required to maintain in confidence any information from the Disclosing Party which:
 - (a) is in the public domain at the time of its disclosure to the Receiving Party;
 - (b) was in the Receiving Party's possession (as reflected in its written records) at the time of disclosure by the Disclosing Party, and which was not acquired, directly or indirectly, from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate, by written documents, resulted from its own research and development, independent of disclosures from the Disclosing Party;
 - (d) the Receiving Party receives without obligations of confidentiality from third parties, provided such information was not obtained by such third parties from the Disclosing Party on a confidential basis; or
 - (e) the Receiving Party is legally required to disclose provided that the Receiving Party provides the Disclosing Party with prompt notice so that it may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. In the event that such protective order or other appropriate remedy is not obtained, and the Disclosing Party does not waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Receiving Party shall only furnish that part of the Confidential Information which it is advised by written opinion of counsel is legally required and it shall exercise its best efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment shall be accorded the Confidential Information so revealed. In the event disclosure is required by law, the obligation of confidence shall not be relieved if disclosure is made "in camera" or pursuant to any other procedure designed to protect the confidential nature of the Confidential Information.
- (3) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, all Confidential Information shall be returned forthwith by the Receiving Party upon the request of the Disclosing Party, including any such requests following the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

Section 6.2 Damages Insufficient

Each Receiving Party hereby acknowledges that it will have specific knowledge of the business of the Disclosing Party as a result of disclosure of the Confidential Information. Without intending to limit the remedies available to any Party hereto, the Parties hereto acknowledge that damages at law will be an insufficient remedy in view of the irrevocable harm, which will be suffered by the Disclosing Party if the Receiving Party violates the terms of Section 6.1. The Parties hereby agree that the Disclosing Party may apply for and have injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction specifically to enforce any such covenants upon the breach or threatened breach of the terms of Section 6.1 by the Receiving Party, without having to prove actual damages or the inadequacy of a remedy at law, and without being required to post a bond or other form of security.

ARTICLE 7: PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

Section 7.1 Ownership of Intellectual Property by XE.COM

All XE.COM hardware, software (including without limitation the Software and the Universal Currency Converter), programs, data, codes, trade names, technology, processes, algorithms, patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, know-how, licenses or other intellectual or proprietary rights (collectively, the "XE.COM Technology and IP") owned by XE.COM or any applicable third party supplier, whether or not used by XE.COM in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, shall remain the sole and exclusive property of XE.COM or such third party supplier, as the case may be. Other than as expressly granted herein, COMPANY shall have no rights, title or interest in the XE.COM Technology and IP. Without limiting the foregoing, COMPANY acknowledges that the trademarks XE, XE.COM, UNIVERSAL CURRENCY CONVERTER, the spinning 'X' and currency logos and any other identifying marks of XE.COM and any applicable third party suppliers are the exclusive property of XE.COM or such third party suppliers, as the case may be, and further agrees that it shall not at any time, whether during or after the term of this Agreement, (i) challenge the validity or ownership of such trademarks, and (ii) shall not register or use any trademark, trade name, domain name, corporate name or other signifier identical to or confusingly similar with such trademarks.

Section 7.2 Ownership of Intellectual Property by COMPANY

All COMPANY hardware, software, programs, codes, trade names, technology, processes, algorithms, patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, know-how, or other intellectual or proprietary rights (collectively, the "COMPANY Technology and IP") owned by COMPANY, whether or not used by COMPANY in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, shall remain the sole and exclusive property of COMPANY. Other than as expressly granted herein, XE.COM shall have no rights, title or interest in the COMPANY Technology and IP.

Section 7.3 Advertising and Publicity

Except as specifically permitted and described hereunder, neither Party shall use the name, service or trademarks, trade names, logos, brands or other corporate identification ("Identifiers") of the other without first obtaining the other's written approval in a reasonable and timely manner. Notwithstanding the foregoing XE.COM may identify COMPANY as a user of the XE.COM products and services in XE.COM's general corporate communications and advertising.

Section 7.4 Return of Materials

Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, each Party shall promptly return all information, documents, manuals and other materials belonging to the other Party, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 8: REPRESENTATIONS and WARRANTIES;

- (c) Each Party represents and warrants to the other that the limitations of liability set out in this Agreement are fair and reasonable in the commercial circumstances of this Agreement and that such limitations have been, in part, an inducement to each of the Parties and a consideration in calculating the license fees payable by COMPANY to XE.COM hereunder, and that neither Party would have entered into this Agreement but for such liability limitations.

Section 8.2 Disclaimer

EXCEPT FOR THE REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND CONDITIONS EXPRESSLY CONTAINED IN THIS AGREEMENT, XE.COM MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED BY LAW, USAGE OF TRADE, COURSE OF DEALING OR OTHERWISE (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OR WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THE RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES) AND XE.COM EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND CONDITIONS TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW.

THE SOFTWARE, UNIVERSAL CURRENCY CONVERTER AND CURRENCY DATA ARE PROVIDED TO COMPANY ON AN "AS IS" BASIS.

SOFTWARE INSTRUCTIONS

Section A.1 Archive File

Once this agreement has been executed and your payment has been processed, the technical contact for this account will be sent an archive file. One copy will be provided in PC-compatible ZIP format, and one in Mac-compatible SIT format. The archive contains HTML templates:

- ucc-input.htm the UCC input template
- ucc-output.htm the UCC output template

Section A.2 Input Template

Extract this file and insert the HTML form into a Web page somewhere on your site. You are free to have as many input pages on your site as you wish. You are free to modify the "look and feel" of your input page in any way you desire, provide the modifications do not contravene this License Agreement. HTML comment tags are included in the source code to help you avoid common pitfalls.

Do not change the post location or name of any variables in the form. Doing so will render your version of the converter inoperable.

In order for your specialized template to be activated, you MUST change the "XX" in the "template" variable in the HTML source code of the input template to the two-letter template code issued to you by us. This code will be issued to you along with the archive file after payment has been cleared.

You are free to add and remove currencies from your converter as you wish. For more information on this and other issues about customizing your front end, refer to the instructions located at:
<http://www.xe.com/ucc/customize.htm>

Section A.3 Output Template

The output template lives on our site, so you must make your desired changes to this page and then e-mail it back to us. You are free to modify the "look and feel" of your output page in any way you desire, provide the modifications do not contravene this Licensing Agreement. HTML comment tags are included in the source code to help you avoid common pitfalls.

Do not delete or change any "asterisk" variables in the output page. Doing so will render your version of the converter inoperable.

When coding graphics and links into your output page, remember to use absolute URL references. The output page is served from our server, and therefore relative references will not work.

For example, the following fictitious link and graphic would NOT work:

```
<A HREF="page.html">Click here</A>
<IMG SRC="/images/graphic.gif">
```

Instead, you would need to specify the full URL location, for example:

```
<A HREF="http://www.yoursite.com/page.html">Click here</A>
<IMG SRC="http://www.yoursite.com/images/graphic.gif">

Section A.4 Technical Support

Pursuant to Section 3.2 of this Agreement, it is your responsibility to provide the technical expertise necessary to customize the converter. This process has been extensively used by many XE.COM clients and is known to work. Many such customized licenses are currently in use at many sites, both small and large, all around the world. We regret that we cannot provide individual technical support for your development efforts.
